SCIENCE FICTION: CONTEMPORARY MYTHOLOGY

The SFWA-SFRA

Anthology

Editors:

PATRICIA WARRICK,
MARTIN HARRY GREENBERG and
JOSEPH OLANDER

An anthology like no other, an absolute MUST if you want to keep abreast of what's happening in sf. Of course it's impossible to include all the best stories in one volume – but this is a careful sampling by people well qualified to decide. It's the most comprehensive one-volume guide you will find anywhere – complete with critical essays and bibliographies. May you enjoy many, many hours of first-class reading! 9 x 5 1/2 in / 476pp / biblios / notes on contributors / index

INTO THIN AIR

People Who Disappear

PAUL BEGGS

Ever wondered about UFOs or the Bermuda Triangle? These are only two of the suggested causes for disappearances – between 11,000 and 26,000 in the UK alone each year. Many are found – but some seem to have literally vanished off the face of the earth. If, as the author puts it, 'there is still a mystery at the end of my investigation, then we have a tantalizing glimpse of the unknown'. 8 1/4 x 5 1/4 in / 184pp / illus / list of sources / index

STAND ON ZANZIBAR

JOHN BRUNNER

A great classic work of fiction that can really change you. In an age of Moonbase Zero and mass-marketed psychedelics, and across three continents, we follow the fate of three key men: the vice president of a billion-dollar corporation who finds his success turned to ashes in his mouth; the sociologist who tries to drop out; and the quiet academic turned into a deadly human machine. 503pp
