

The BIBLE for SF fans

2,800 Separate Entries

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA OF SCIENCE FICTION

Edited by PETER NICHOLLS

Here at last is the sf encyclopedia that everybody's been waiting for. Under Nicholls' expert editorship, over thirty researchers have spent more than three years assembling this gigantic and comprehensive work. The result is more than impressive.

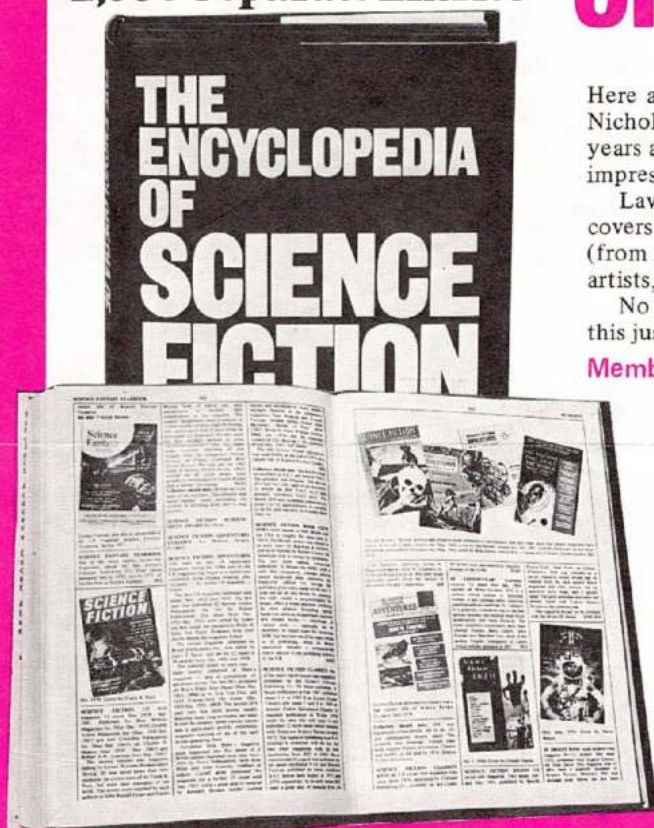

Lavishly illustrated, attractively laid out, and simple to use, the encyclopedia covers every known sf writer (from Aandahl to Zulawski) and every sf magazine (from Air Wonder Stories to Worlds of Tomorrow), plus all the major films, sf artists, editors, critics, tv programmes, awards, comics and fanzines.

No more need be said. If you only buy one science fiction reference work, this just has to be it. 10 x 6 1/4 in / 672pp / illus throughout

Member's price £10.95

Granada £15.00

REF NO 6983

What the Experts Say

ISAAC ASIMOV: 'The word for this book is complete. It will become the bible for all sf fans.'

PHILIP JOSE FARMER: 'By far the most inclusive history of sf so far. It's indispensable.'

FRANK HERBERT: 'The most valuable sf source book ever written.'

MIKE MOORCOCK: 'There has never been any similar reference book which comes close to matching it.'

ROGER ZELAZNY: 'Informative, instructive, thorough... it's fun to poke around in too.'

THROUGH TIME and SPACE

THIS WORLD AND NEARER ONES
essays exploring the familiar
BRIAN ALDISS

Did you know that a Buck Rogers is a Shirley Temple with Coke in it? Neither did Brian Aldiss till he visited California - just one of the stop-offs in this witty and insightful collection of articles, observations, and reviews. 8 1/4 x 5 1/4 in / 261pp / 14 photos

Member's price £4.95
Weidenfeld & Nicholson £6.95

REF NO 6415

THE LIGHT THAT NEVER WAS
LLOYD BIGGLE, JR

All alien species looked pretty odd, but some looked downright disgusting. Humans classed the strangest as 'animaloids' and didn't think much more about them. Until they rioted. And until something that looked like a giant slug produced a picture of exquisite beauty... 8 1/4 x 5 1/4 in / 240pp

Member's price £2.20
Elmfield Press £3.95

REF NO 6353

I, ROBOT
ISAAC ASIMOV

'There was a time when humanity faced the universe alone and without a friend. Now he has creatures to help him; stronger creatures than himself, more faithful, more useful'... and potentially more frightening. Nine classic robot stories. 8 1/4 x 5 1/4 in / 218pp

Member's price £2.95

Dobson £3.95

REF NO 6300

GOD'S WORLD
IAN WATSON

The beings on God's World have found a way into High Space, and in High Space everything is different. Different enough for humans to call it heaven. The crew of the Pilgrim are tempted to enter - but there's just one problem: they have to die first... 7 1/4 x 4 1/4 in / 254pp

Member's price £4.50

Gollancz £5.95

REF NO 6494

THE WAY THE FUTURE WAS
FREDERIK POHL

Fred Pohl - part of a teenage group that included Asimov, Blish, Merrill, and Knight; editor of Astonishing Stories at the age of nineteen; and master sf writer from the 1950s onwards. These fascinating and lively memoirs add up to a personal history of modern science fiction. 8 1/4 x 5 1/4 in / 254pp / 8 photos

Member's price £4.85

Gollancz £6.95

REF NO 6388

NEBULA WINNERS TWELVE

Edited by GORDON R DICKSON

NEBULA WINNERS THIRTEEN

Edited by SAMUEL R DELANY

Two outstanding anthologies of specially selected stories all of which won the coveted and prestigious Nebula Awards.

Gordon Dickson, past President of the SF Writers of America, edits the 12th volume - a collection that includes Asimov's 'Bicentennial Man' and James Tiptree's famous novella, 'Houston, Houston, Do You Read?'.

Thirteen features Vonda McIntyre, Spider and Jeanne Robinson, and John Varley - some of the most talented new American writers.

Both are excellent - the Nebula name guarantees it!

TWELVE

8 x 5 in / 242pp

Member's price £3.75

Harper & Row £4.95

REF NO 8646

THIRTEEN

8 x 5 in / 239pp

Member's price £4.50

Harper & Row £5.95

REF NO 6837

