

Collector's Cabinet
ALL PUBLISHERS' EDITIONS!

STRANGER IN A STRANGE LAND

ROBERT HEINLEIN

One of the classic science fiction novels of all time, it won Heinlein his third Hugo.

Michael Valentine Smith is half Martian. But while he is eager to adjust and make friends, he is grossly misunderstood, treated as a potential tool of fanatics and politicians – even the legal owner of Mars. Foiling a plan to exploit him, a nurse escapes with him to a household where he is accepted, and where everyone who comes into contact with him is greatly changed.

A biting satire of American society which caused an uproar when it was published in the early '60s. 7¼ x 5in / 400pp / Pub Ed

Member's £3.95

New English Library £5.25

REF NO 6495

THIS WORLD AND NEARER ONES

Essays exploring the familiar

BRIAN W ALDISS

Dazzling array of articles and reviews from a highly distinguished sf writer. Read what he has to say on all kinds of subjects, particularly science fiction – from Jules Verne to Star Trek and Star Wars! Despite the impact of science fiction as a literary genre, it is rarely discussed. That's what makes this important book a must for all sf readers. 8¼ x 5¼in / 261pp / 8pp illus / index / Pub Ed

Member's price £4.95

Weidenfeld & Nicolson £6.95

REF NO 6415

GOD'S WORLD

IAN WATSON

In the year 1997 'angels' appear at holy places round the world, summoning humanity to 'come to God's World' – which they identify as a planet of the star 82 Eridani, twenty light years from Earth. A mysterious space-drive materialises in the Gobi desert, and round it scientists construct a space-ship. In this carefully picked team of scientists and humanists heads for outer space but heaven turns out to be far from heavenly... a compelling novel which demonstrates Ian Watson's special gift for extending the barriers of thought and experience. Try it! 7¼ x 4¼in / 254pp

Member's price £4.50

Gollancz £5.95

REF NO 6494

UP THE WALLS OF THE WORLD

JAMES TIPTREE, Jr.

Winner of Hugo & Nebula Awards

Telepathic humans make mental contact with the Tyrenni, strange alien beings resembling winged squids. The aliens' world, Tyree, is being threatened by the Destroyer, which is moving inexorably towards them, obliterating whole solar systems in its path. When the Tyrenni realise it threatens to exterminate life on Tyree, they are forced into a decision contrary to all their moral beliefs... to take over the bodies of their human contacts! 7¼ x 4¼in / 319pp

Member's price £3.95

Gollancz £5.25

REF NO 6753

BLIND VOICES

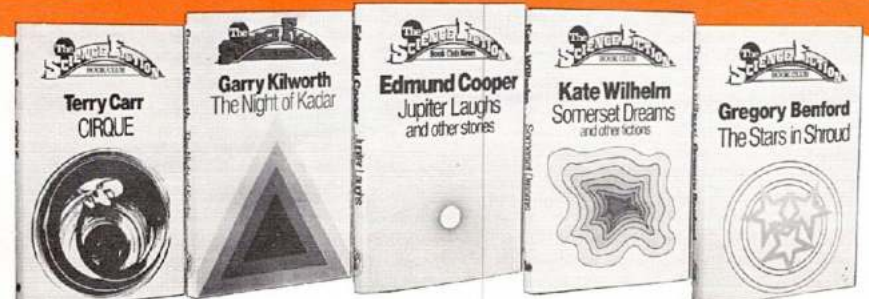

TOM REAMY

Haverstock's Travelling Curious and Wondershow is a presentation of mysterious wonders, feats of magic, strange creatures, and frightening powers. Three teenage girls attend the opening performance, and find themselves drawn to the show and its performers – a lusty Minotaur, Angel the magical albino boy, the rowdy stage hands – but the enigmatic Haverstock frightens them. At first, the girls try to dismiss the marvels as trickery, but it becomes all too real, too vivid to be other than NIGHTMARE REALITY... 7¼ x 4¼in / 254pp

Member's price £4.50

Sidgwick & Jackson £5.95

REF NO 6351

CIRQUE TERRY CARR
Earth's last beautiful metropolis Cirque, city of love and harmony, with inspiring religious rites, is built round an Abyss that contains a terrible creature. It is loathsome to imagine, frightening to confront – and now it is climbing out of the Abyss to claim its own! 187pp

Club Edition £1.95
Publisher's Edition £4.25
REF NO 5155

THE NIGHT OF KADAR GARRY KILWORTH
'There is a raw sense of elemental adventure about this which is deeply satisfying.' Tom Hutchinson, The Times. As the starship approaches its destination, the embryos warm to life, their growth accelerated. They must settle to life on their new planet in the knowledge that something is out to destroy them... 193pp Publisher's Edition £4.95
Club Edition £1.75
REF NO 5148

Just Imagine...

JUPITER LAUGHS and other stories EDMUND COOPER
Stories from one of Britain's best known sf writers, who is also Science Fiction critic for The Sunday Times. Amusing, intriguing and occasionally uncomfortably prophetic, these are tales that will be read more than once. If you are still unfamiliar with Cooper's work, this is an ideal starting point. 220pp
Club Edition £2.45
Publisher's Edition £5.50
REF NO 5164

SOMERSET DREAMS KATE WILHELM
Eight short stories from a Nebula Award winning author. The settings are familiar to us, yet with her imaginative genius, Kate Wilhelm gives them a different slant, a new dimension. They are stories that will work into your life and become part of your own experience. 174pp
Club Edition £2.25
Publisher's Edition £5.50
REF NO 5156

THE STARS IN SHROUD GREGORY BENFORD
Who are the mysterious, alien Quarn? Why are they so hostile towards the Chinese-dominated galactic Empire? Why do they destroy themselves rather than be taken captive? The answers begin to be found on the planet Veden where a new spiritual cult is dawning. 291pp / author's note
Club Edition £3.15
REF NO 5162

NEVER RUB BOTTOMS WITH A PORCUPINE and other gems from the NEW STATESMAN Weekend Competition 1968-78
Selected and introduced by ARTHUR MARSHALL
From the fevered minds of New Statesman readers everywhere come these hysterically funny pieces on a variety of subjects – 'helpful' advice for foreign tourists, advertising copy for a political party, awful recipes, and more besides. It's the sort of book you just cannot put down, you won't even want to try. 9½ x 7¼in / 240pp / cartoons / index George Allen & Unwin £5.50
Member's price £4.15 REF 6588

THE PUNCH BOOK OF SHORT STORIES 2 Edited by ALAN COREN
The art of short story writing has been kept alive by science fiction, and is now being rediscovered by writers in other fields. If sf short stories appeal to you, so will this new anthology with contributions from Paul Theroux, Joan Bakewell and 18 others. A fine collection of fictions for every reader. 8½ x 5½in / 192pp Robson Books £5.95
Member's price £4.50 REF 6763