

WHO'S WHO in science fiction

BRIAN ASH

Member's price £2.25
Elm Tree Books £4.95

An inexpensive easy-to-use A-Z guide-book that gives succinct biographical and bibliographical information on over 400 authors, editors, and illustrators.

'Christopher Anvil', 'John Christopher', 'Charles Eric Maine' – the men behind the pseudonyms are revealed. Bova, Carnell, Conklin – the influential editors are carefully surveyed. Ernstring, Nation, Nowlan – the creators of Perry Rhodan, Dr Who, and Buck Rogers receive full entries alongside the better known names. Invaluable for newcomers, and a delightful companion for every sf enthusiast. 8½ x 5½in / 220pp / chronology / biblio

REF NO 1681

WHO'S WHO in horror & fantasy fiction

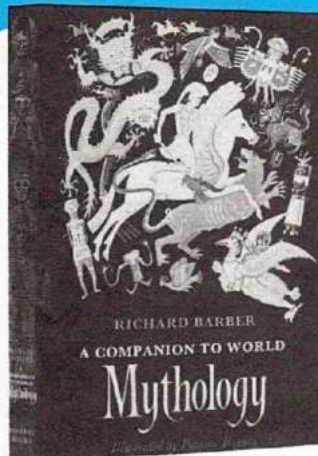

MIKE ASHLEY

Member's price £2.75
Elm Tree Books £5.50

The best guide currently available, expertly covering the whole of this vast field from Victorian ghost stories to modern sword and sorcery.

Tolkien, Lovecraft, Moorcock, Bierce, Haggard, Poe, de Camp, Burroughs... no less than 400 fascinating entries give concise details of major and minor authors, living and dead, plus their important contributions to fantasy literature. Additional listings cover specialist magazines, important anthologies, a checklist of titles, and a record of awards. Essential for students, addicts, and straightforward fantasy fans. 8½ x 5½in / 240pp / chronology / appendices

REF NO 8455

Strange fantasies, ancient mysteries

A COMPANION TO WORLD

Mythology

RICHARD BARBER

Illustrated by Pauline Baynes

Kholumolumo, the world-eating monster (Sotho, South African)

Monsters and magicians, marvels and mysteries – this encyclopaedic reference work is an essential sourcebook for all fantasy and sf fans, opening the doors to the outlandish and disturbing worlds of our ancestral imaginations – worlds that still have a strange and powerful fascination for all of us today.

Trolls, magically evil beings (Norse)

From Poul Anderson's Norse sagas to Roger Zelazny's Hindu myths, this expert guidebook is a practical and invaluable literary companion, as well as a fascinating compendium of intriguing stories and out-of-the-way information. Magnificently illustrated by Pauline Baynes (famous for her work on Tolkien and C S Lewis), this is a distinguished and exceptional volume that you will want to consult again and again. 9 x 6in / 312pp / lavishly illus throughout, inc colour / maps / index of topics and places

Member's price £5.95

Kestrel £7.95

REF NO 6831

Quetzalcoatl, the 'plumed serpent', god of the wind and the west (Aztec)

Mictlantecuhtli, Lord of the Dead; Unkulunkulu, the 'great one of old'; Yomi-no-kuni, Land of Gloom; Ragnarok, the end of the world... This easily consulted A-Z guide brings together myths and legends, gods and heroes, from dozens of cultures (classical and modern) across the globe.

SYZYGY

MICHAEL G CONEY

'The next time it came slowly, almost thoughtfully, the jaw hinging open and shut as it prepared for the final thrust, the downturned mouth sad as though it had tasted something unpleasant...'

When the six moons of Arcadia come together, strange events convulse the planet's surface. A fascinating insight into an alien ecology.

8½ x 5½in / 167pp

Member's price £2.15

Elmfield Press £3.90

REF NO 6429

THIS WORLD AND NEARER ONES

BRIAN ALDISS

Published in connection with the Brighton World SF Convention, where Brian Aldiss was British Guest of Honour, this remarkable collection of essays, written with characteristic humour and elan, covers a host of topics – from Sheekley and Dick, Verne and Vonnegut, to May Day in Moscow and the delights of swimming in an extinct volcano. 8¼ x 5¼in / 261pp / 14 photos

Member's price £4.95

Weidenfeld & Nicolson £6.95

REF NO 6415

THE LIGHT THAT NEVER WAS

LLOYD BIGGLE JR

'The eyes opened. The creature shook the mask off, took a great, shuddering breath. Its ears jerked, it lurched forward on to its four hoofs and struggled upright. The long neck slowly uncoiled...'

A fast-moving novel of alien conflict.

8½ x 5½in / 240pp

Member's price £2.20

Elmfield Press £3.95

REF NO 6353

THE BOOK OF PHILIP JOSE FARMER

A selection of Farmer's best short stories (with fascinating commentaries by Farmer himself) plus some intriguingly odd articles – 'An Exclusive Interview with Lord Greystoke', 'The Obscure Life and Hard Times of Kilgore Trout', and a selection of Farmer's extraordinary modern myths. 8 x 5in / 239pp

Member's price £2.75

Elmfield Press £4.95

REF NO 6348

FALSE DAWN

CHELSEA QUINN YARBRO

'She looked ahead for firmer ground and saw an oily stretch of water moving sluggishly under the wan moon... Sliding the nictitating membranes over her eyes, she dropped to her knees and moved forward, her crossbow at the ready.' The vivid story of a flight from danger in a world cursed by radiation and disease. 7¼ x 4¼in / 208pp

Member's price £4.45

Sidgwick & Jackson £5.95

REF NO 6414

PUBLISHERS' EDITIONS
A fantastic Selection