An unusual and exciting collection by Britain's most popular sf writer

Sf Art This extraordinary cenotaph — never built — was designed by Etienne-Louis Boullée in 1784, and dedicated to the memory of Sir Isaac Newton

Brian W Aldiss This World and Nearer Ones

Essays exploring the familiar

A remarkable collection of 30 essays, articles, and reviews written with characteristic humour and élan on a host of topics.

- Aldiss on sf — James Blish, Philip K Dick, Kurt Vonnegut, Jules Verne, the stories of Robert Sheckley, and science fiction art
- Aldiss on travel — drinking a Buck Rogers in a notorious San Diego bar, swimming in the crater of an extinct Sumatran volcano
- Aldiss on today's world — Spielberg, Hiroshima, memories of the Festival of Britain 8 1/4 x 5in / 261pp / photos / index
