THE ATLAS OF THE UNIVERSE

Written and researched by Patrick Moore with NASA and other international sources

Foreword by Sir Bernard Lovell

Incorporating new data and discoveries from the Pioneer, Viking, Voyager, and Solar Maximum missions and the latest developments in deep-space research

'We of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration... are delighted with the Atlas's beautiful portrayal of the unlimited challenges of the vast terrae incognitae in space that lie before us'.

A totally new atlas charting a revolutionary new age of discovery... with a wealth of stunning photographs taken on the surface of other planets, from satellites and from Earth; complete atlases of the moon, the solar system and the stars; and an abundance of authoritative and lucid information on every aspect of space and space exploration. A magnificent reference work for every well-informed science fiction fan.
