

The Bachelors by Muriel Spark

The story of the aimless lives lived by a group of London bachelors: a strange novel, especially remarkable for its wit and humour.

Elsewhere 16s; CF 7s, post free

Billy Liar by Keith Waterhouse

A picture of Saturday in the life of a very imaginative undertaker's clerk, 'rich in absurdness and beautifully edged' (The Times Literary Supplement).

Elsewhere 13s 6d; CF 7s, post free

The Childbuyer by John Hersey

The examination before a 'Standing Committee of a Certain State Senate' of a man who has offered a large sum of money for a child prodigy; 'a brilliant satire, savage, bitter and at times very funny' (The Times Literary Supplement).

Elsewhere 15s; CF 7s, post free

The Crossing Point by Gerda Charles

A vivid and penetrating picture of Jewish life in a London suburb.

Elsewhere 18s; CF 7s, post free

The Fell of Dark by James Norman

A dramatic and compassionate account of the terrible last days of the Spanish Civil War.

Elsewhere 18s; CF 7s, post free

Four Voices by Isobel English

A witty and sensitive study of four people, as separate as strangers and yet bound to one another by strong ties of need and affection.

Elsewhere 16s; CF 7s, post free

Henderson the Rain King by Saul Bellow

Rich and ageing, Henderson goes, on an impulse, to Africa. Amid many strange adventures he finds a new knowledge of himself. 'A moving and true book.' Observer.

Elsewhere 16s; CF 7s, post free

The Householder by R. Praver Jhabvala

A gentle and humorous picture of a young man growing up in the new India and finding his way through the ups and downs of everyday life.

Elsewhere 13s 6d; CF 7s, post free

The Luck of Ginger Coffey by Brian Moore

The funny and moving story of the struggles of Ginger Coffey, the blustering Irish immigrant, to make a life for himself in Canada.

Elsewhere 15s; CF 7s, post free

No Longer At Ease by Chinua Achebe

Obi Okonkwo, coming back with an English degree to work in Lagos, finds a harsh conflict between his loyalty to his home and background and his newer 'Western' ideas; a wise and stimulating study of the problems facing the people of all 'young' countries.

Elsewhere 13s 6d; CF 7s, post free

Tents of Wickedness by Peter de Vries

A book of dazzling wit and sophistication, full of satire and marvellous parodies, about a middle-aged, 'lonely hearts' column writer, faced with the reappearance of a girl friend from his past.

Elsewhere 16s; CF 7s, post free

When My Girl Comes Home by V. S. Pritchett

This collection of stories is by a writer with a wonderful eye for the oddities in human nature and a rich sense of humour. His skill is masterly.

Elsewhere 16s; CF 7s, post free

Future Titles (CF Choices are issued bi-monthly):

A New Life by Bernard Malamud

A wonderful study of a man's efforts to rebuild his broken life through teaching; 'a very fine novel' (Observer).

SEPTEMBER 1963

Elsewhere 21s; CF 7s, post free

The Spoilt City by Olivia Manning

One of 'the dozen most distinguished English novelists' (The Times Literary Supplement) describes Bucharest at the moment of German occupation in June 1940, making urgent and real the atmosphere of tension and fear.

NOVEMBER 1963

Elsewhere 18s; CF 7s, post free

The Barbary Light by P. H. Newby

In middle age Owen Hanner still has dreams of romantic rebellion, but is too weak to make them real; finally he has to face his own limitations. 'Full of sudden rich flashes of life.' Sunday Telegraph.

JANUARY 1964

Elsewhere 18s; CF 7s, post free

The Birthday King by Gabriel Fielding

'An astonishing and engrossing tour de force in which Mr Fielding explores and exposes the German dream during the war years.' Evening Standard.

MARCH 1964

Elsewhere 21s; CF 7s, post free

Orders from SFBC members for any titles on this list will be most welcome; you may, if you wish, place a Standing Order so that you will receive CF Choices regularly. Send a card to Letchworth, with a note of your membership number or source of supply, and stating whether you wish to place a Standing Order or indicating your requirements for individual titles, past or future. We wish you a great deal of enjoyable reading.

WANTED

MR T. W. CARTER, of 184 North Street, South Bank, Middlesbrough, Yorkshire, wants to obtain a copy of Robert Heinlein's Starship Troopers. Will any member who can help please get into touch with him direct.

Mr H. Hodson, of 77 Anglesey Road, Ashton-under-Lyne, Lancashire, wants to obtain a copy of the SFBC edition of Olaf Stapledon's Odd John. If anyone can help will they please get into touch with Mr Hodson direct.

THIS MONTH'S CHOICE IS LAST MEN IN LONDON
by Olaf Stapledon

(Methuen, o.p.; SFBC 5s 9d)

NEXT MONTH'S CHOICE IS TIGER BY THE TAIL
by Alan E. Nourse

(Dobson 13s 6d; SFBC 6s)

Issued by the Science Fiction Book Club from 10-13 Bedford St, London, W.C.2
from whom details of membership can be obtained, and printed by the Aldine Press, Dunhams Lane, Letchworth, Hertfordshire